ON THE MARC

Rams QB Marc Bulger is starting to hit his stride this season after notching back-to-back 300-yard passing games. At New Orleans last week, Bulger completed a season-high 27 of 33 passes for 302 yards and two touchdowns. His 125.0 passer rating was sixth-highest of his career, and the highest since he had a 134.5 passer rating against Washington last season (12/24). His 81.1 completion percentage was the best percentage of his career, surpassing his previous high of 77.5 completion percentage at Atlanta (9/19/04). Bulger completed passes to seven receivers, with five receivers catching at least four passes.

With an offensive line that featured one starter from the season opener, Bulger was precise and sharp with his passes. On the Rams first scoring drive in the first quarter, Bulger was five-for-five for 50 yards. The drive was culminated with a 1-yard touchdown run by RB Steven Jackson to tie the score, 7-7.

At the end of the first half, Bulger had completed 14 of 16 passes for 128 yards with a 100.0 passer rating.

In the third quarter, Bulger capped a five-play, 47-yard drive, with a 9-yard touchdown pass to WR Isaac Bruce, giving the Rams a 27-7 lead. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Bulger connected with WR Drew Bennett on a 3-yard touchdown strike, spreading the Rams lead to 34-7, marking Bulger's first multi-touchdown game of the season. The touchdown also marked Bulger's 100th career touchdown pass.

In Week 8 vs. Cleveland, Bulger recorded his 25th career 300-yard passing game, only his second outing after missing two games due to injury. Bulger connected on 24 of 36 passes for 310 yards, the third-most passing yards in Week 8.

This game will be the second time the Rams have faced off against San Francisco this season. In the first meeting in Week 2, Bulger had his first 300-yard passing game of the season, completing 24 of 41 passes for a season-high 368 yards and one touchdown.

THIS WEEK

The Rams travel to San Francisco this week to take on the San Francisco 49ers. This is the second matchup between the NFC West rivals as the 49ers defeated the Rams, 17-16, at the Edward Jones Dome in Week 2.

This game will be the 117th meeting all-time between the franchises. The series dates to 1950, San Francisco's first year in the NFL. The Rams lead the all-time series 59-55-2. The teams have met twice each year since the series inception, including three meetings in 1989, the third being in the NFC Championship game.

The series began on Oct. 1, 1950, and the Rams opened by winning five of the first six games. In the 1951 and 1952 seasons, the teams played in back-to-back weeks. From 1968-1980, the Rams won 22 times, losing just four, with one tie, with separate winning streaks of nine and 10 games. From 1981 until the first meeting in 1990, San Francisco won 13 of 20 meetings, including the 1989 NFC Championship game, 30-3. The 49ers won 17 consecutive games from 1990-98. The Rams ended the streak in 1999 en route to sweeping the 49ers for the first time since 1980.

After the Saints scored two touchdowns of their own, Wilkins extended the Rams lead to 37-21 by connecting on the 300th successful field goal attempt of his career. After a late touchdown strike to Saints TE Eric Johnson, New Orleans was unable to recover an onside kick attempt, as the Rams left New Orleans with a 37-21 victory.

THE HEAD COACHES

SCOTT LINEHAN (2nd season as head coach, 2nd with Rams; Career Record: 9-16) – Named twenty-second head coach in franchise history by Owner/Chairman Georgia Frontiere on January 19, 2006. Linehan rallied the Rams to an 8-8 finish in his first season. Quarterback Marc Bulger enjoyed the best season of his career, including 4,301 yards passing and 24 touchdowns. Balancing the offensive attack, Linehan guided Steven Jackson to lead the league with 2,334 combined yards, and set a Rams running back record with 90 catches. Prior to joining the Rams, Linehan was the offensive coordinator of the Miami Dolphins; the Dolphins improved from 29th in 2004 to 14th in total offensive in 2005. Linehan spent three seasons (2002-2004) as offensive coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings. In 2004, Daunte Culpepper posted the fourth-highest single season passer rating in NFL history (110.9). A college quarterback, Linehan was a free agent signee with the Dallas Cowboys before a shoulder injury ended his active career.

MIKE NOLAN (3rd season as head coach, 3rd with San Francisco; Career Record: 13-28) – Named the fifteenth head coach in 49ers history on January 19, 2005, Mike Nolan enters his third season as head coach of the San Francisco 49ers. Nolan is in his twentieth year in coaching. Nolan joins San Francisco after an impressive stint as defensive coordinator of the Baltimore Ravens, a position he has held with three other teams: New York Jets (2000), Washington Redskins (1997-99), and New York Giants (1993-96). In Baltimore, Nolan's defense was among the NFL's best, finishing third overall. Baltimore ranked first in the AFC with 17 fumble recoveries and led the NFL in sacks (47) and tied for first in the AFC and second in the NFL with 41 takeaways. Nolan joined the Ravens after a one-year stay as the New York Jets defensive coordinator in 2000. Under Nolan's tutelage, the Jets defense rebounded to tenth overall (tied with the Philadelphia Eagles) in the league – an improvement of 11 spots from the previous year. From 1997-99 Nolan was the defensive coordinator of the Washington Redskins. In 1997, the Redskins allowed the eighth-fewest points in the NFL and finished third overall in pass defense. He also spent four seasons as defensive coordinator under then-head coach Dan Reeves for the New York Giants (1993-96). In his first season, the Giants' defense allowed the fewest points in the NFL (205). Nolan also worked on Reeves' staff from 1987-1992 with the Denver Broncos as linebackers coach and as special teams coach/defensive assistant.

THE LAST TIME

Edward Jones Dome, September 16, 2007 (65,295) –

The Rams suffered their second loss of the season in Week 2, falling 17-16 to division rival San Francisco. After LS Chris Massey recovered a muffed punt following the Rams first possession, QB Marc Bulger found WR Torry Holt on a 12-yard touchdown strike, making it the second consecutive week the pair had opened the scoring. San Francisco RB Frank Gore plunged into the end zone from 1-yard on the first play of the second quarter to tie the score 7-7 before two successful field goal attempts by Rams K Jeff Wilkins extended the Rams to 13-7 at the half. The Rams moved the ball deep into San Francisco territory early in the third quarter before a costly turnover resulted in a nine-play, 80-yard 49er drive, capped by a 43-yard touchdown run by Gore. Wilkins converted his third field goal attempt of the day early in the fourth quarter, splitting the uprights from a season-long 53 yards to put the Rams on top 16-14. On the following possession, the Rams kept the 49ers offense from crossing midfield before a muffed punt gave San Francisco a second chance, which they capitalized on when K Joe Nedney converted a 40-yard field goal attempt to put the Niners up by one, 17-16. With just 2:35 remaining, the Rams defense forced a three-and-out, providing the offense with one final drive. Bulger led the Rams 42 yards in just 49 seconds, but Wilkins 56-yard field goal attempt came up short, as San Francisco prevailed by a final score of 17-16.

A PUNTING JONES

P Donnie Jones is having a Pro-Bowl caliber year, as he leads the NFL with a 50.0-yard punting average, and is third in the NFL (second in the NFC) with a 41.3-yard net average.

In Week 7 at Seattle, Jones punted six times for a 52.3-yard average with a career long of 80 yards. The 80-yard punt marked the third longest punt in Rams history, and the longest in the NFL this season. The punt surpassed his then career long in of 66 yards that he set in Week 4 at Dallas.

Against Arizona in Week 5, Jones made four punts for a 56.0 average with a long of 60 yards. His 56.0-yard gross average was the best single game average in franchise history, passing Jack Jacobs' 55.8-average at Detroit Sept. 27, 1942.

A week earlier at Dallas, he punted eight times for a then career-high 55.3-yard average with a long of 66 yards, two touchbacks and four kicks inside the 20-yard line.

BIG GAME T. HOLT

"Big Game" Torry Holt has had just that against San Francisco in his career. Holt has faced the 49ers more than any team in the NFL, notching 87 receptions for 1,262 yards and five touchdowns in 15 games against San Francisco. Holt has had double digit receptions in four games against San Francisco, and has notched three 100-yard performances, including one 200-yard receiving game. Holt averages 14.5 yards per reception against the 49ers and 84.1 yards per game. In the earlier meeting against San Francisco in Week 2 this season, Holt was second on the team with five catches for 74 yards and scored the Rams only touchdown.

Holt continues to prove that he is one of the best receivers in the NFL. In Week 9 at New Orleans, Holt led the team in receiving for the seventh time this season, tying a season-high with eight catches for a season-high 124 yards. The game marked his second 100-yard receiving game of the season, 45th of his career. Holt's 45 100-yard receiving games are third most in the NFL since 1999.

On a 9-yard reception in the third quarter, Holt passed Hall of Famer James Lofton (764) on the NFL's all-time reception list. With 766 career receptions, Holt is one reception behind former teammate Marshall Faulk (767) on the all-time list.

Entering Week 10, Holt is tied for third in the NFC (tied for ninth in the NFL) with 54 receptions and ranks third in the NFC (ninth in the NFL) with 700 receiving yards. He is second in the NFC (tied for sixth in the NFL) with 16 receptions on third down. Holt is also sixth in the NFC in first downs.

In Week 8 against Cleveland, Holt led the team with 110 receiving yards on six receptions, his first 100-yard receiving performance this season, 44th of his career.

A week earlier at Seattle, Holt led the team in receptions and receiving yards, catching eight passes for 82 yards, with all eight receptions coming in the second half. His performance vaulted him past Hall of Famers Charlie Joiner and Michael Irvin to move into 21st place on the NFL's all-time receptions list.

Against Arizona in Week 5, Holt passed the 11,000-career receiving yards mark. Holt reached the 11,000-yard mark in 131 games, fastest of any player in league history. He is currently 19th on the NFL's receiving yards list. With 14 more receiving yards, he will move into 18th place, passing WR Rod Smith.

Holt leads the team in receptions this season, and has done so since 2002. He also leads the team in receiving yards, and has led the team in that category since 2000. In 2003, Holt made a career-high 117 catches for a career-high 1,696 yards and 12 touchdowns. His 117 receptions rank second-most in team history and seventh most in NFL history.

Since 2000, Holt has 10,587 receiving yards, more than any other player in the NFL. From 2000-2005, he had at least 1,300 receiving yards in each season, the first player in league history to record six consecutive 1,300-yard receiving seasons. His 714 receptions since 2000, is second-most in the NFL.

Holt has the highest career receiving yards per game average in NFL history with 11,375 in 135 games (84.2 avg.).

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

The Rams join the Denver Broncos as one of only two teams in the NFL this season to play six road games in an eight-game period.

The Rams began their stretch in Week 2 at Tampa Bay 9/23 and the stretch will end after this week's contest at San Francisco, as the team returns to the Edward Jones Dome to face Seattle on Nov. 25.

The Rams six road opponents during the eight-game period - Tampa Bay, Dallas, Baltimore, Seattle, New Orleans and San Francisco - are 28-26 this season, a .518 winning percentage. The stretch includes three division leaders in Tampa Bay (NFC South), Dallas (NFC East) and Seattle (NFC West).

The Houston Texans were the only team last season to play six road games in an eight-game stretch.

ACTION JACKSON

Returning from injury, RB Steven Jackson has given a spark to the Rams offense – rushing as well as passing. At New Orleans last week, Jackson led the team with 76 yards on 22 carries with one touchdown. Jackson also was second on the team with five receptions for 24 yards. Jackson scored on a 1-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to tie the score, 7-7. The score was the second on the season for Jackson.

Jackson also threw his first touchdown pass of his career. In the second quarter on the New Orleans 2-yard line, Jackson faked a run a hit TE Randy McMichael for a touchdown to give the Rams a 14-7 lead.

In Week 8 against Cleveland, Jackson rushed eight times for 41 yards and a touchdown in the first quarter before having to leave the game with back spasms and did not return. The game was Jackson's first since missing four games with a groin injury.

In Week 3 at Tampa Bay, Jackson rushed a season-high 30 times for a season-high 115 yards, his 11th 100-yard rushing performance of his career, first of the season.

In Week 2 against San Francisco, Jackson rushed 21 times for 60 yards and in the season opener against Carolina, he made 18 carries for 58 yards.

Although Jackson has played in only five games, he leads the team with 350 rushing yards on 99 carries and two touchdowns.

THIRD DOWN? NO PROBLEM

The Rams had no problem moving the chains on third down at New Orleans last week, converting eight of 13 third downs for a 62% third-down efficiency, including converting five third downs that were 5 yards or longer. The mark was the best third-down percentage the Rams have had since 2004 at Seattle where the Rams converted 11 of 17 third downs for a 64.7% third down efficiency.

PISA MIND

LB Pisa Tinoisamoa remains one of the top tacklers on the Rams defense. In playing only seven games this season, Tinoisamoa is second on the team with 67 tackles (36 solo), tied for the team lead with two interceptions, and one pass defensed.

In Week 9 at New Orleans, Tinoisamoa finished second on the team with six tackles (three solo) and one interception. He picked off QB Drew Brees in the second quarter and returned the pick 15 yards to the New Orleans 36-yard line. The pick led to a 49-yard field goal by K Jeff Wilkins to give the Rams a 17-7 lead. The pick was Tinoisamoa's second of the season, seventh of his career.

This season, Tinoisamoa has posted three consecutive double-digit tackle games. He finished second on the team with 12 tackles (five solo) in Week 7 at Seattle. In Week 6 at Baltimore, he made a team-high 15 tackles (eight solo) and one interception. In Week 5, Tinoisamoa led the defense with 15 tackles (nine solo) against Arizona. His 42-tackle total during that three-game span marks the most since LB London Fletcher collected 46 tackles over the same span in 2001 (12 vs. Carolina 11/11, 17 @ New England 11/18, 17 vs. Tampa Bay 11/26).

Tinoisamoa led the linebackers with nine tackles (four solo) at Dallas in Week 4, his first game back from missing two games due to injury.

PITTMAN THE HITMAN

Rookie RB Antonio Pittman returned to the team that released him earlier this year when the Rams faced the Saints in Week 9. Pittman, who saw the most action he's seen this season, rushed seven times for 53 yards, including a team-long of 43-yarder that set up a 1-yard touchdown run by RB Steven Jackson.

With Jackson back in the lineup, and second-round draft pick RB Brian Leonard playing fullback, Pittman will see more time as the season continues.

SAFETY NET

Ss Oshiomogho Atogwe and Corey Chavous are tied for third on the team with 54 tackles a piece. Atogwe has 54 tackles (39 solo), tied for the team lead with two interceptions, three passes defensed, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Chavous has 54 tackles (31 solo), 1.0 sack, two passes defensed and one forced fumble. Chavous has missed two games due to injury.

At New Orleans in Week 9, Atogwe led the defensive backs with five tackles (four solo) and his second interception of the season. Atogwe intercepted QB Drew Brees in the first quarter to give Rams possession on their 38-yard line. The pick led to a 1-yard touchdown run by RB Steven Jackson to tied the game, 7-7. The interception was the sixth of his career.

Against Cleveland in Week 8, he made seven tackles (four solo), his third highest tackle total of the season, with one pass defensed.

Atogwe tied for a team-high among defensive backs with five tackles (three solo) and one pass defensed at Seattle in Week 7.

In 2006, Atogwe tied for the team high with six forced fumbles, developing a knack for causing turnovers. In Week 4 at Dallas, Atogwe made eight tackles (five solo), and one interception, his first of the season, fifth of his career. In Week 3 at Tampa Bay, he made six tackles (five solo) one forced fumble and one fumble recovery, earning Rams' Defensive Player of the Game honors.

In the season opener, Atogwe made 10 tackles (nine solo), his first double-digit tackle game of his career.

Chavous finished second on the team with nine tackles (five solo) against Cleveland in Week 8, his second-highest tackle total of the season.

At Seattle in Week 7, Chavous saw his first action after missing two games with an injury. He tied for a team-high among defensive backs with five tackles (three solo) and one pass defensed.

Prior to his injury, Chavous had notched back-to-back double digit tackle games, the first time since 2004. He made 10 tackles (six solo) at Dallas in Week 4, and added 1.0 sack, his first of the season, third of his career. In Week 3, he made 10 tackles (six solo) at Tampa Bay.

BALL HOGS

The Rams were stingy with the football last week at New Orleans in Week 9, holding possession for 39:42, nearly 10 minutes more than the team average of 30:18 this season. The possession mark also is the Rams sixth longest times of possession in a game since time of possession started being tracked in 1981.

COMMUNITY RAMBLINGS

Williams Visits Hollenbeck Middle School as Part of CHARACTERplus Program

On Tuesday, November 6, wide receiver Brandon Williams took his day off and put it to good use by speaking to middle school students about the importance of character and responsibility. Williams visited the "Huddle Up in Advisory" team from Hollenbeck Middle School, in the Francis Howell School District.

While visiting with the students, Williams shared his life story and explained to the kids how character, teamwork and responsibility played a role in his journey to becoming an NFL player. He also held a discussion with the students about the impact of role models and the impact passion can have in life.

Williams visited the school as part of the CHARACTERplus program which is an initiative of the Cooperating School District. CHARACTERplus is devoted to advancing the cause and importance of character education and it is designed to address issues related to student character, responsibility and academic achievement. Bruce to Host 2nd Annual Holiday Gala

On Monday, December 3, 2007, Rams' wide receiver Isaac Bruce will host the 2nd Annual Isaac Bruce Foundation Holiday Gala at the Kemp Auto Museum in Chesterfield at 7 p.m. The Isaac Bruce Foundation focuses on health, wellness, nutrition, fitness and education. Through the foundation, Isaac reaches out to youth and teaches them at an early age the importance of a healthy lifestyle.

The Isaac Bruce Foundation Holiday Gala will feature a performance by Saturday Night Live alum Dean Edwards, live music by DRZHIVEGAS, healthy and organic tasting stations from some of St. Louis' top restaurants, wine tastings, and a live and silent auction featuring unique memorabilia, trips and experiences. Dress is cocktail attire.

Isaac will be auctioning some game-worn memorabilia, front row seats with pregame field passes to December 16 game against the Green Bay Packers, two first class tickets on American Airlines, some great trips, and much more!

Since it is the season of giving, each attendee was asked to bring a pair of new kids' shoes to the event. The shoes will be collected and donated to Neighborhood Houses to give needy children the opportunity to be active.

Tickets are limited and may be purchased via mail, charge by phone or by visiting www.isaacbruce.org. For more information, contact Tiffani Wilson at 314-291-1880 or by email at tiffwilson@aol.com.

FOR THE LONGEST TIME

Since the Super Bowl era only five wide receiver tandems have been together for nine or more seasons. Rams' WRs Isaac Bruce and Torry Holt (1999-present) represent one pair, joining Pittsburgh's Lynn Swann and John Stallworth (1974-82), Miami's Mark Clayton and Mark Duper (1983-92), San Francisco's Jerry Rice and John Taylor (1987-95) and Denver's Rod Smith and Ed McCaffrey (1995-2003).

The tandem of Bruce and Holt has proven to be one of the most effective long-term wide receiver pairs in NFL history, as Bruce and Holt have more receptions (1,368) and receiving yards (20,475) than any of the other four pairings.

LINE DANCING

Due to injuries, the Rams' offensive line has undergone shuffling throughout the 2007 season. Starting RG Richie Incognito has missed five games this season due to ankle and knee injuries and starting LT Orlando Pace and starting LG Mark Setterstrom are out for the season. RT Adam Goldberg who started for the Rams at Tampa Bay and in Week 4 at Dallas 9/30, suffered a knee injury versus the Cowboys and is also out for the season. Pace suffered a shoulder injury in Week 1 vs. Carolina 9/9 and Setterstrom injured his knee during the Rams' Week 3 matchup at Tampa Bay 9/23.

The Rams used their 15th different offensive line combination of the season in Week 10 at New Orleans. Injuries, however, were not the direct cause of the change. The team was expected to use the same offensive line that finished the game vs. Cleveland in Week 8 when they faced the Saints, but Brandon Gorin and Rob Pettiti shared time at RT. Gorin started the game, but after the first series Gorin began to alternate offensive series with Pettiti, who joined the team two weeks ago.

The Rams have used seven different starting offensive line combinations this season. The Rams have played only one game in which the same offensive line that began the game also finished the contest, a Week 5 matchup vs. Arizona 10/30.

A STRONG LEG

K Jeff Wilkins has proven to be one of the best kickers in the NFL.

In Week 10 at New Orleans, Wilkins converted all three of his field goal attempts and all four of his PAT attempts. The 13 points gave Wilkins 1,381 career points, passing Jim Bakken for 19th all-time on the NFL's all-time points list. His point total ranks seventh among active kickers.

Wilkins' four field goals gave him 300 for his career and pushed him into a tie with Matt Bahr and Mark Moseley for 18th place all-time for career field goals made. The 300 field goals made rank eighth among active kickers.

Wilkins 258 field goals as a Ram stands as the Rams' all-time mark and his 1,188 points make him the Rams' all-time scoring leader.

Wilkins' career 82.0 field goal percentage ranks fifth among active kickers and Wilkins' 481 career extra points rank sixth among active kickers and 22nd all time.

Wilkins has converted 357 consecutive extra points, the second-longest streak in NFL history behind Denver K Jason Elam's streak of 371 consecutive extra point conversions from 1993-2002.

A TALL TARGET

One of the most accomplished veteran players on the free agent market following the 2006 season, Drew Bennett signed with the Rams, giving an already dangerous passing an added dimension: a 6'5" red zone target. In six seasons with the Titans, Bennett played in 87 games with 57 starts, recording 273 receptions, 4,033 yards and 25 touchdowns. His best year came in 2004, when he started all 16 games, catching 80 passes for a team-leading 1,247 yards and 11 touchdowns.

After being inactive for two of the first seven games and playing at less than full-strength in the other five, Bennett has proven to be a dangerous weapon since returning to 100 percent health. After a six-catch, 63-yard performance against Cleveland in Week 8, Bennett caught four passes for 37 yards and a touchdown against New Orleans last week, helping the Rams to their first win of the 2007 campaign. Eight of Bennett's 10 catches during the two-game stretch have gone for first downs and his 77.8 first down percentage leads on the team.

RUN DOWN

After allowing 10 100-yard rushing performances in 2006, the Rams defense has not allowed a running back to rush for 100 yards this season. The nine-game stretch marks the longest stretch the Rams have not allowed a player to rush for 100 yards in a game since the end of 2000 into the 2002 season, where the Rams went 21 straight games without allowing a 100-yard rusher. This is how running backs have fared against the Rams this season:

DANDY RANDY

TE Randy McMichael had his best showing in his first season as a Ram last week at New Orleans. He caught a season-high four receptions for 41 yards (10.3 avg.) and was the recipient of RB Steven Jackson's first career touchdown pass, a 2-yard toss with 8:37 remaining in the first half, giving the Rams a 14-7 lead.

McMichael scored his first touchdown of the season at home against Arizona in Week 5. He recorded three receptions for 45 yards (15.0 avg.) and one touchdown. McMichael has 24 receptions for 284 yards (11.8 avg.) and two touchdowns on the season.

McMichael began his tenure with the Rams ranked sixth among active tight ends in receptions with 283 career receptions. He currently ranks seventh among active tight ends with 306 receptions for 3,385 yards and 20 touchdowns.

QUARTERBACKS (2) – Doug Nussmeier

Marc Bulger (7), Gus Frerotte (14)

Two-time Pro Bowler Marc Bulger starts at QB for the Rams. Bulger is starting to hit his stride this season after notching back-to-back 300-yard passing games. At New Orleans last week, Bulger completed a season-high 27 of 33 passes for 302 yards and two touchdowns. His 125.0 passer rating was sixth-highest of his career, and the highest since he had a 134.5 passer rating against Washington last season (12/24/06). His 81.1 completion percentage was the best percentage of his career, surpassing his previous high of 77.5 completion percentage at Atlanta (9/19/04). Backing up Bulger, is 14-year veteran Gus Frerotte. Frerotte provides valuable experience and is familiar with coach Scott Linehan's offensive system, after spending time with Linehan while he was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Minnesota (2003-04) and Miami (2005). Frerotte started in place of Bulger in Week 5 vs. Arizona 10/7 and in Week 6 at Baltimore 10/14. Frerotte saw brief action vs. Cleveland, temporarily playing for Bulger after Bulger suffered a thumb injury. In his first start, Frerotte completed 24-of-43 passes for 262 yards with three touchdowns and three interceptions.

RUNNING BACKS (5) – Wayne Moses

Steven Jackson (4), Brian Leonard (R), Travis Minor (7), Richard Owens (4), Antonio Pittman (R)

Pro Bowler Steven Jackson serves as the Rams feature back. In Week 10 at New Orleans, Steven Jackson returned from a back injury after the bye week and rushed for 76 yards on 22 carries with a touchdown. Jackson also caught five passes for 24 and added a touchdown pass on an option run inside the five yard line. In Week 3 vs. Tampa Bay 9/23 Jackson posted his first 100-yard rushing performance of the year, rushing 30 times for 115 yards. Jackson returned to the starting lineup in Week 8 vs. Cleveland after being sidelined for four games after suffering a groin injury vs. Tampa Bay. Jackson leads the Rams in 2007 with 350 rushing yards on 99 carries. Rams 2007 second-round draft pick Brian Leonard started four games in place of Jackson. In the second start of his young NFL career in Week 5 vs. Arizona 10/7, Leonard rushed for 102 yards on 18 carries, the first 100-yard rushing performance of his career. Leonard also made five receptions for 33 yards. In his first NFL start in Week 4 at Dallas 9/30, Leonard rushed 16 times for 58 yards. The former All-America honoree from Rutgers has made contributions in 2007 as a rusher and as a receiver out of the backfield, rushing 79 times for 282 yards and gaining 145 yards on 20 receptions. Rookie Antonio Pittman, joined the Rams on a waiver claim 9/2 after being waived by the New Orleans Saints during final roster cuts. Last week at New Orleans, Pittman had the best game of his young career, gaining 53 yards on seven carries. Pittman nearly scored his first NFL touchdown on a 43-yard rush before being pushed out at the one-yard line. The 43-yard rush was the longest run for the Rams this season. Pittman made his NFL debut vs Arizona, playing on special teams. Pittman made his first NFL carry at Baltimore and finished with five carries for 11 yards. Pittman, a fourth-round draft choice of the Saints out of Ohio State, ranks eighth on the Buckeyes' all-time rushing list despite playing only three seasons. Travis Minor joined the Rams in the offseason after spending the previous six seasons with Miami. Minor provides added depth and valuable contributions on special teams. Minor saw his most extensive action on offense this season in Week 6 at Baltimore 10/14, leading the Rams with 40 rushing yards on seven carries. Minor made three tackles on special teams vs. Arizona and is second on the squad with nine special teams tackles.

Drew Bennett (7), Isaac Bruce (14), Marques Hagans (1), Dante Hall (8), Torry Holt (9), Dane Looker (7), Travis Taylor (8), Brandon Williams (2)

The Rams' receiving corps is led by Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce, two of the best wide receivers in the NFL. Holt and Bruce are one of only five pairs of wide receivers who have played together for nine or more seasons in the Super Bowl era. The pair has totaled 1,368 receptions and 20,475 receiving yards with 120 touchdowns since their first season together in 1999. Holt leads the Rams this season with 54 receptions and 700 yards with four touchdowns. In Week 10 at New Orleans, Holt caught eight passes for 124 yards. In Week 7 at Seattle 10/21, Holt made eight receptions and passed Hall of Famers Charlie Joiner and Michael Irvin to move into 21st place on the NFL's all-time receptions list with 752 career receptions. With a 26-yard reception on a Gus Frerotte pass in the fourth quarter of the Week 5 matchup vs. Arizona 10/7, Holt surpassed 11,000 career receiving yards, becoming the fastest player in NFL history to reach the milestone, accomplishing the feat in 131 games. Bruce has added 27 receptions for 387 yards, including posting eight receptions for 145 yards in Week 2 vs. San Francisco 9/16. With his three receptions in Week 3 at Tampa Bay 9/23, Bruce surpassed 900 receptions during his career and reached the milestone in only 186 games, becoming the third-fastest player to reach the mark in NFL history. At New Orleans, Bruce scored his first touchdown of the year and tied Art Powell for 17th all-time on the NFL's career touchdown receptions list. Bennett made his debut for the Rams in Week 2 vs. San Francisco, posting three catches for 42 yards. Bennett was deactivated for the season opening contest vs. Carolina 9/9 after suffering a thigh injury in practice. Joining Bennett as a new addition to the Rams receiving corps is former Kansas City Chief Dante Hall. One of the most dynamic return men in NFL history, Hall entered 2007 with 11 return touchdowns, good for third in NFL history. Hall proved his worth quickly in the 2007, returning the opening kickoff of the second half vs. Carolina for 84 yards. Hall produced his first kick return touchdown as a Ram in Week 4 at Dallas 9/30, taking a Mat McBriar punt back 85 yards for a touchdown. Hall is tied for second in NFL history with 12 total kick return touchdowns (six kickoff returns, six punt returns). Hall is currently out of the lineup after suffering an ankle injury vs. Arizona. Dane Looker is in his fifth year with the Rams and is an important backup at the receiver position and critical on special teams, serving as the holder for K Jeff Wilkins. Second-year receiver Marques Hagans joined the Rams' 53-man roster this season after spending the 2006 campaign as a member of the practice squad. Hagans, selected by the Rams in the fifth round of the 2006 NFL Draft, is a former college quarterback and also serves as the team's emergency signal-caller. Hagans led all Rams receivers at Baltimore with five catches for 74 yards in only his second NFL game. Hagans made his NFL debut vs. Arizona, entering the game in place of Dante Hall who left the game with an ankle injury. Hagans returned one kickoff for 20 yards and also caught one pass for 11 yards. Brandon Williams, who signed with the Rams Oct. 9, five days before the Week 6 game at Baltimore, has served as the Rams' primary kick returner in place of Hall. A week after Williams set a personal-best with 112 kickoff return yards and 134 combined return yards (112 kickoff; 22 punt) at Baltimore, Williams continued the trend with his performance at Seattle last week. At Seattle, Williams returned seven kickoffs for 171 yards, both career highs. He also added one fair catch on a punt return. WR Travis Taylor signed with the Rams 10/17 before the game at Seattle. Taylor, a former first-round draft choice, made his Rams debut in Week 7 at Seattle, catching one pass for four yards.

TIGHT ENDS (3) – Judd Garrett

Dominique Byrd (2), Joe Klopfenstein (2), Randy McMichael (6)

Randy McMichael starts at tight end for the Rams, after joining the team as a free agent in the offseason from Miami. McMichael spent five seasons with the Dolphins, one of which was spent under the tutelage of then Dolphins offensive coordinator Scott Linehan. McMichael is a receiving threat and an effective blocker from the tight end position. In Week 10 at New Orleans, McMichael caught four passes for 41 yards and a touchdown. The touchdown reception came on an option pass from RB Steven Jackson inside the five yard line. In Week 5 vs. Arizona 10/7, McMichael scored his first touchdown as a Ram on a 29-yard reception in the fourth quarter. In 2007, McMichael has made 23 receptions for 289 yards and two touchdowns. A pair of second-year tight ends, Joe Klopfenstein and Dominique Byrd provide depth at the position. Klopfenstein has made six starts this season in either a two-tight end set or at fullback. Aaron Walker who had started in a two-tight end set three times this season was placed on the reserve/injured list Tuesday and will miss the rest of the season.

OFFENSIVE LINE (8) – Paul Boudreau, Jim Chaney

Alex Barron (3), Milford Brown (6), Dustin Fry (R), Brandon Gorin (7), Richie Incognito (3), Nick Leckey (4), Andy McCollum (14), Brett Romberg (4)

Due to injuries, the Rams' offensive line has undergone shuffling throughout the 2007 season. Starting RG Richie Incognito has missed five games this season due to ankle and knee injuries and starting LT Orlando Pace and starting LG Mark Setterstrom are out for the season. RT Adam Goldberg who started for the Rams at Tampa Bay and in Week 4 at Dallas 9/30, suffered a knee injury versus the Cowboys and is also out for the season. Pace suffered a shoulder injury in Week 1 vs. Carolina 9/9 and Setterstrom injured his knee during the Rams' Week 3 matchup at Tampa Bay 9/23. The Rams have used a line that features Alex Barron at LT, Milford Brown at LG, Brett Romberg at C, Andy McCollum at RG and Brandon Gorin at RT, but injuries have caused even more shuffling, with the Rams using 15 different offensive line combinations this season, including seven different starting lineups. The Rams have played only one game in which the same offensive line that began the game also finished the contest, a Week 5 matchup vs. Arizona 10/30. In Week 10 at New Orleans, Leckey started at RG in place of McCollum who moved over to C to fill in for Romberg who has suffered injuries to both ankles. Gorin and Pettiti shared time at RT. Gorin started the game, but after the first series Gorin began to alternate offensive series with Pettiti, who joined the team two weeks ago. Fifth-round draft choice Dustin Fry spent the beginning of the year on the practice squad but has been signed to the active roster. Fry dressed for the New Orleans contest but did not play.

Carriker finished the game with four total tackles. DT Clifton Ryan was been called upon to give the Rams' significant playing time after second-year player DT Claude Wroten was suspended for four games. Ryan proved to be ready to contribute as he saw increased action in the Week 2 matchup vs. San Francisco. Ryan, led the Rams' defensive lineman with eight total tackles including two sacks and also caused a fumble by 49ers QB Alex Smith, which he recovered himself. Ryan became the first Rams' rookie since Sean Gilber in 1992 to record two sacks in a game. Ryan's 2.0 sacks rank third among NFL rookies. At Baltimore, Ryan led Rams' defensive linemen with seven tackles. Ryan's 34 tackles are second to James Hall for the most among Rams defensive linemen. Wroten returned in Week 6 at Baltimore, and made one tackle. At Seattle, Wroten made two tackles and had two quarterback pressures. DE Trevor Johnson also provides depth at the defensive end position for the Rams. McGarigle serves as a backup linebacker and is an important special teams player. McGarigle has four special teams tackles, notching three of the tackles in the contest vs. Arizona. Undrafted rookie free agent Quinton Culberson from Mississippi State rounds out the linebacking corps. Culberson was inactive in the season-opener, but saw his first NFL action in Week 2 vs. San Francisco, notching two special teams tackles and earning Special Teams Player of the Week from the team's coaches. Culberson earned his second Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his play at Baltimore in Week 6.

At New Orleans in Week 10, Atogwe added to his takeaway total when he intercepted a Drew Brees pass in the first quarter. CB Tye Hill, a second-year player out of Clemson, starts at cornerback, but missed four games due to a back injury that was suffered in practice prior to the Week 2 contest vs. San Francisco. Johnson's 12 special teams tackles rank first on the team. Johnson's experience has proven valuable after injuries in the secondary. S Jerome Carter was placed on the reserve/injured list after injuring his foot vs. Arizona. With Chavous already out due to a pectoral injury, Johnson moved into the starting lineup at strong safety at Baltimore, and led Rams' defensive backs with nine tackles. 2007 third-round pick CB Jonathan Wade contributes as a backup in the secondary this season and is a gunner on the Rams' punt coverage teams. Wade, who earned Associated Press All-Southeastern Conference honors while at Tennessee, is third on the team with six tackles on special teams and has

The 300 field goals made rank eighth among active kickers. Wilkins' 258 field goals as a Ram stand as the Rams' all-time mark and his 1,188 points make him the Rams' all-time scoring leader. Wilkins' career 82.0 field goal percentage ranks fifth among active kickers and Wilkins' 481 career extra points rank sixth among active kickers and 22nd all-time. Wilkins has converted 357 consecutive extra points, the second-longest streak in NFL history behind Denver K Jason Elam's streak of 371 consecutive extra point conversions from 1993-2002. LS Chris Massey, one of the most consistent players at his position, continues long snapping duties, while P Donnie Jones is having a Pro-Bowl caliber year, as he leads the NFL with a 50.0-yard punting average, and is third in the NFL (second in the NFC) with a 41.3-yard net average. In Week 7 at Seattle, Jones punted six times for a 52.3-yard average with a career long of 80 yards. The 80-yard punt marked the third longest punt in Rams history, and the longest in the NFL this season. The punt surpassed his then career long in of 66 yards that he set in Week 4 at Dallas. Against Arizona in Week 5, Jones made four punts for a 56.0 average with a long of 60 yards. His 56.0-yard gross average was the best single game average in franchise history, passing Jack Jacobs' 55.8-average at Detroit Sept. 27, 1942. A week earlier at Dallas, he punted eight times for a then career-high 55.3-yard average with a long of 66 yards, two touchbacks and four kicks inside the 20-yard line.
